MARSHALL KRATZ

DIRECTOR

Texas AHEC East—Northeast Region

Marshall Kratz is the Director of the Northeast Region of Texas AHEC East.

Marshall has been directing AHEC regional operations in various capacities for 10 years. He is responsible for providing program administration and management for the Northeast regional center overseeing all workforce development programs and community health support services for 25 counties. He has been quite successful in developing and maintaining working relationships with community organizations to address unmet community health needs in the Northeast region and provide awareness about AHEC's programmatic activities.

Prior to his AHEC affiliations he was Director of Clinic Operations at the University of Texas Health Center in Tyler and an Administrative Manager at CHRISTUS St Elizabeth Hospital in Beaumont. He also has served as an Administrator in the 301st Aerospace Medicine Squadron, NAS JRB in Ft Worth and in the 147th Medical Squadron, Ellington Field in Houston.

Marshall holds a BS in Administrative Science from the University of California in Riverside and a Masters in Health Care Administration from St Louis University in St Louis, Missouri. He most recently completed a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Texas in Tyler, Texas.
