TERRY WILLEMIN

DIRECTOR

Texas AHEC East - Victoria Region

---

Terry Willemin has been named Director of Texas AHEC East – Victoria Region after serving over 16 years as Senior Program Coordinator. She brings with her an extensive knowledge of the communities in her region, and passion to continue the outreach and support that has previously been established over the last two decades.

She has a background in marketing, recruitment, practice management, and public relations. Over the last 16 years she has implemented many successful grant partnerships which have resulted in an increase in the number and diversity of the healthcare workforce. Additionally, her work with high school and higher education pathways have introduced and streamlined the educational path for students interested in healthcare and public health.

Outside of the office, she loves spending time with her two grandsons, being involved with church ministry and being active outdoors!

Ms. Willemin earned a Bachelor of Science in Communications from University of Houston-Victoria.
